

LEARNING STORE

insight into eyesight

Name: _____

Correcting your eyesight

Can you match the invention to its description?

Draw the object next to its description and fill in the spaces.

First invented in the 14th Century, they were first made from wood with quartz lenses.

They are called _____

This is a type of surgery which alters the shape of the cornea so that you can usually do away with glasses or contact lenses.

This is called _____

First invented in the 19th Century, these small cup-shaped lenses float on the surface of the cornea.

They are called _____

Available in many shapes colours and materials, you should be able to find a pair which suit your face.

For a round face choose a pair which are _____.

score =

This page is designed for printing and filling in by hand.
Draw your pictures, fill in the spaces and ask your teacher to mark it.

Boots Opticians

LEARNING STORE

www.bootslearningstore.com